Okay so... I'm Hungarian, and this book had to live up to some SERIOUS exceptions. My grandmother still makes most of these dishes, and she always tells us different ingredients in order to not let us mimic her cooking.... (: My mother also made variations of these recipes with whatever we had in our kitchen, but it always had that 'Hungarian' touch. My mother ordered me this cook book for me, and I ended up making a few of these recipes, and they are definitely 'up there'. My only complaint is that it doesn't really specify the serving size, and some of the recipes don't have exact measurements.... but let's be real, Hungarians only use '5 pinches of this'.. and a 'dash of this'...

Standard Hungarian recipes. Most of the recipes recommend the use of lard. I would save drippings from bacon or pork sausage and use as the substitute for the lard.

Love the book! Delivery was fast and professional. Thnx!!

excellent recipes, good instructions, great pictures.

This is a wonderful 95-page illustrated cookbook with about 110 traditional Hungarian recipes, the perfect gift for a budding chef. The recipes include all the ingredients and instructions, and a bit of the folk lore surrounding each of the dishes as well. We're thrilled with this cookbook and hope it is back in print in the U.S. very soon.
