Let's Go Istanbul, Athens & The Greek Islands: The Student Travel Guide

Synopsis

One straddles two millennia, the other, two continents: Athens and Istanbul rank among the world's oldest and culturally rich cities. The cradle of democracy and the crucible of empires are inextricably linked to the past; Let's Go Athens and Istanbul shows travelers how to embrace them in the present. With the help of Let's Go's witty, wily student researchers, travelers learn the subtle difference between raki and ouzo, the intricacies of the Grand Bazaar, and the rules of the Athens metro, as well as irreverent anecdotes about everyone from Athena to the Ottoman Emperor. From the Acropolis to the Hagia Sofia, Let's Go Athens and Istanbul is the perfect guide to immersive, engaging travel.

Customer Reviews

Let's Go books are the best! They tell you about many interesting places to see not mentioned in other travel books and inexpensive places to stay and dine--by the Jewish Students at Harvard University!

This book really helps me when I took the independent tour of Istanbul in October 2012. But the book doesn't advise that on Idul Qurban Festival and National Day the Grand Bazaar will be closed for the whole week!

This book is extremely short and had very little information. The maps are impossible to read on an iPad or kindle!

My daughter and grand daughter used this guild book on a independent trip and they both were glad they had it. They used it everyday and were very pleased with it.
