I was surprised to find that these aren't board books! I was a bit put off at first at how small they are and the silken pages, but the stories more than make up for that. Mine and my son's favourite is the tale of the hermit crab!

Love all the Eric Carle books. Nice set in a cute display box.

Purchased this for my 8 month old. He loves books. I was looking for mini books with the thick cardboard like pages. The pages in the book are regular glossy book pages. Not good for him to play with alone without destroying it. Otherwise very cute and as described.

This is a decent product. I wasn't too excited about it. The colors aren't too bright, but overall it was a good buy.

These books are very small. My toddler son (22 months) has a limited interest in reading them because they are hard for him to hold open and look through. Some of the stories are also quite long. BUT he does really enjoy trying to put the books back in the slots of the box (a little tricky because they are different thicknesses and so only fit one slot). He also LOVES Eric Carle books and recognizes the artwork style from the other books.

This set was exactly what I was looking for, for my son. I love Eric Carle books and being able to get a mini set for my son is wonderful. He'll surely enjoy these books.

These books are a great size for our toddler. You simply cannot beat the bargain it is to get these books for this price. You could pay as much for just one single Eric Carle book on or in the store. Instead, you get several titles for the price of one. Our daughter doesn't need a huge book -- these smaller sized books are the same as the larger ones and absolutely nothing is lost in the size reduction. It saves space too, which helps with our book-loving daughter's ever expanding library. We purchased this set and one other Eric Carle box set for her for Christmas 2010. The box set prices allowed us to get our daughter so many more of these wonderful books. I was pleasantly surprised when they arrived and were even bigger than I expected. We couldn't be more pleased.
