The New York Dog

Synopsis

Following in the paw prints of The French Cat and The French Dog, The New York Dog showcases Rachael Hale McKenna's signature photographic style in the Big Apple. Capturing both the atmosphere of the city and the personalities of its canine residents, Hale explores the life of the New York dog from many angles, showing dogs taking walks, riding in taxis, lounging in extravagant apartments, shopping in boutiques, visiting spas, dining in restaurants, and much more. From purebreds on the Upper East Side to loveable mutts in Queens, The New York Dog celebrates the wide variety of dogs that live throughout all five boroughs of this great city.

Born and raised in New Zealand, Rachael now lives in France with her husband, Andrew, and their daughter, Charlize.

The New York Dog is filled with beautiful, amazing photos! Some photos will bring a smile to your face, while others make you stop and stare. But each photo tugs at your heart string in different ways. Dog lovers will love the photos and photographers will be inspired by them.

Beautiful book was hoping it would be thicker about double the size but it's ok

My favorite city & my best friend- love the book!

My mom and sister visit New York every year around Christmas time and my sister is a huge dog lover so this book is perfect for her coffee table! Excellent photos and a magnificent gift to give!!

Got this book for my boyfriend for his birthday. We both LOVE it and enjoy reading the different stories.

I've always wanted this book. It's so fun to flip through. It brings me joy watching these New York City dogs! I especially adore the Lakeland.

Beautiful photos and such a fun book. Perfect for any dog lover!

The most beautiful coffee table book for either a dog lover or a New York lover. I want her to put out more in varying cities, I'd buy them all!!
