Konami Kanata was born on July 3, 1958, in Nagano, Japan. A veteran manga artist Konami made her professional debut in 1982 with the serialized comic Petit Cat Jam-Jam for Kodansha's seminal shoujo manga magazine NakaYoshi. The daughter of an elementary school teacher, most of Konami's stories are for readers of all ages making her one of the most accessible artists in recent history. In her nearly thirty year career, Konami has penned more than a dozen comic series, with the majority of them focusing on cats and pets. Konami is well regarded within the pet-manga community for her keen sense of cat ecology. Her ability to observe and render feline behavior has earned her respect from the Japanese manga community as a whole. While most of her properties were published for a younger female demographic, her most recent series Chi's Sweet Home is currently being published by Kodansha's Morning magazine, Japan's leading comic magazine for adult readers. Proving that quality can be found even in the cutest of sources. Chi's Sweet Home will be Konami's first translated work.

Cute series - great for 8 to 10 year olds - collection is a great value compared to buying individual books

Arrived on time in new condition. My 8 year old son loves this book. It is set up like a comic book.

In full color. Loved reading it.

I read this manga at a bookstore one time and I couldn't stop laughing. I had to refrain from cackling like a crazy hyena on helium. It is so funny and this being the first manga in color printing . I can't wait for the next three volumes to come out.

I received recommendations for this book from a librarian group online, and they were right on. My 9-year-old son loves to be read to and to make up his own stories, but reading independently is still hard for him due to learning disorders. That being said, he ADORED the Chi series--there are four volumes. He loved the drawings, the expressions on the cats' faces, and the action and suspense in the stories. While he was reading these books, I never had to remind him to do his daily reading. In fact, I had to convince him to stop reading to get to his other homework and dinner and bedtime. Highly recommended. Oh, this mom read and loved them, too.

This book killed me. Cause of death: cuteness overload. No regrets.
