Customer Reviews

"This issue can be seen as a tragedy in motion; its last chapter has yet to be written," said Bluewater president Darren G. Davis. "Lohan is both a victim of the all-consuming celebrity culture and a perpetrator of bad decisions, the lack of self-control and an unhealthy sense of entitlement. According to Shapiro, the book is not all about the salacious headlines, mug shots and outrageous behavior, but tries to examine the underlying causes of Lohan's inability to "straighten out her life." I wish to expand my career and spread Japanese manga culture. I am keen to work directly with an American publisher to make more people aware of mangastyle,

This is a great biography book! I learned a lot that I did not know, and it was fun to read. Who would of ever thought that a comic book can be in a biography format. I think these are great collectibles as well as a fun read. I really enjoyed the artwork as well - very classic and cool!
