Great book!

Bought as a wedding shower gift with pizza pan and cutter - They liked it and seemed like a good combo

great deb

This book is good for a person that is just starting out making pizza. I was hoping for something a little more advanced and more recipes.

This was brought as a Fathers Day gift it has been well used ever since. Recipes are easy to follow and the history tidbits are interesting. Wish it had pictures to go along with each recipe.

At the risk of dating myself, I can remember when pizza had only one topping. Cheese. I was very young, of course. Undoubtedly Belinda Hulin has never heard of such a relic. She offers an outstanding and delicious array of toppings for pizza to fit most any occasion. My Southern roots gravitated to the Fried Green Tomato Pizza and then inched right over to the Southern Pimiento Cheese Pizza. But Hulin takes us beyond Southern to Thai Peanut Chicken, Mexican Pizza--the list goes on. And back when I was thinking how boring a cheese pizza tasted, I never dreamed of dessert pizza or breakfast pizza. Hulin's offerings are truly a pizza tour de force.
