Matz, Rudolf - 25 Etudes (Lower Positions) - Cello solo - Dominis Music Edition

I've been teaching cello for over 25 years and the Matz etude books are the great, little-known treasure for so many levels. They are well organized pedagogically, and so musical that many can be played as solo works much like the Chopin Etudes for piano. It is a loss to the art of cello performance that they are not in much higher use. The 25 Etudes are particularly great for teaching intermediate cellists positions 1-4 to where they are able to think about alternate fingerings across the strings rather than being stuck in 1st position until they hit the A string.

5 stars should say it all

These are wonderful etudes. Start in 4th position, then include all the lower positions. Beautiful. They should be much more widely used.
