Customer Reviews

Great little books for beginning readers. The are short enough to read several a day which gives a sense of accomplishment. The pictures are bright and colorful and very helpful to enable children to decode non sight words. I have the entire set and I highly recommend them!

These 25 little books are perfect for just beginners! These sight word books are small enough that they are easy to handle for my 4yr old. He loves that he can read them to me! I love that it outlines the sight word in the top right corner in each book and highlights out throughout that it is working on.

There are also a little workbook and stickers included with this box set.

Child has fun with picking book that has sight words of week at preK. Great idea .

learning to read is frustrating, but so far my son likes the books, and even requests "3 a night". They are only 8-10 pages each, so he feels quick reward when he finishes one.

As a teacher and parent I love all the Scholastic Reader Parent Packs of books.

Fun and kids like the challenge.

My girls aged 3 and 4 are learning alot with these books.

My grandgirl is in kindergarten and loved the readers.
