The Inner Bitch Guide To Men, Relationships, Dating, Etc.

Synopsis

Have you ever heard him say "Darling, our time alone together is so perfect, could you drop all your friends? And your cat? Be sure to wear that dress with the tiny flowers when we go fly fishing with Myron and Marie, you'll love them"? Well, this is the end of Toxic Niceness as you know it! No more 2-week wonders. No more saying "Yes" when you mean "No." Your inner bitch is that integral, powerful part of you that is going unrecognized, especially when you're falling in love. It's time to let her out. Looking for romance? Let your Inner Bitch be the guide.

Customer Reviews

A wonderful book by the author who coined the phrase toxic niceness with a wicked sense of humor and self aware sarcasm

what can anyone say it is a BOOK you have no right to demand how many words to write. because of that demand i usually wont write anything why do you need so many statements ITS GOOD SHOULD BE FINE PEOPLE DO NOT HAVE THE TIME TO ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS

I made this book required reading for my teenage daughter before she was allowed to date. Yes, some of the advice is obvious, but too often we raise our daughters to be "nice" at the expense of just having good sense. The title suggests that this book would contain a lot of man-bashing, but the truth is that it attacks some of the classic female behavior that also makes most men crazy. Like--why don't you just say what you want instead of politely waiting for the man to guess what you want and then pouting when he doesn't get it right? This book is full of no-nonsense common sense written in a shoot-from-the-hip style with lots of cartoons and plenty of humor. An entertaining read, but also full of good advice.

I downloaded the audible version of this book because it was listed under comedy. It is not a comedy. I didn't laugh at all. It is the same as most dating books. Basically I can sum the entire book as this, Be your self don't fake who you are or lie, and honestly ask for what you want. That in my mind isn't a bitch that is assertive and honest.

I thought this would be interesting to read - I'm a man - to see things from the woman's point of view. The advice seems to be obvious, often, and it's a bit superficial, but occasionally funny. I like the comment about "fighting fair" - don't be the "Psycho Bitch from Hell," says the author.

A great book for women who are tired of being walked on and unsure how to appropriately proceed. This is a comical book and to the point. It makes for a great gift.
