Great children's book that highlights the best family friendly things to do around Pittsburgh. Illustrations are pretty much right on with views of the city skyline. Only complaint is that of the sports teams' representation; the Pirates are left out. A page filled with beautiful PNC Park would've been nice!

Perfect book for the youngsters! This is a must for anyone who grew up there and want to share.

Loved it !! Cute little book that had lots of fun Pittsburgh spots included in it !!

This is my go to baby shower gift being from the Pittsburgh area! It's unique and the recipients are always excited to read it themselves. It has nice illustrations and includes many landmarks of Pittsburgh. My daughter has had the book for a few years and I like to read it either right before or right after going to one of the landmarks so we can share our memories.

This is part of our bedtime routine, as a displaced Yinzer in the south it's nice to have a little bit of home in my kids' library. The illustrations are great.

My best friend in Pittsburgh had a baby shower for her daughter. Her daughter and son-in-law bought a house in another state. I gave her this book and she and everyone at the shower loved it. Great pictures but missed picture of Pirates.

We received the Good Night Vermont book as a gift from a friend who lives there. I thought it was cute and started looking up other versions. I live in Pittsburgh and found that there was a version coming out soon. I bought it as soon as it did and I fell in love! I've since bought more as gifts because they are adorable. We also have the North Carolina version. This is a great board book for little ones and has great nostalgia for the areas it covers. I highly recommend...and I will be buying more!

My 1 year old asks to be read this book over and over. It's fun for me as a newcomer to Pittsburgh to recognize some of the fun places we've been able to visit so far and look forward to some others.
