Arbitration 2009: Due Process In The Workplace - Proceedings Of The Sixty-Second Annual Meeting Of The National Academy Of Arbitrators

Synopsis

Arbitration 2009: Due Process in the Workplace . The premiere resource for practitioners in the field of arbitration, Arbitration 2009: Due Process in the Workplace continues the NAA's tradition of producing the most timely and enduring examination of labor and employment relations topics, where diversity of opinion and research stimulate a rethinking of old paradigms and serve as a catalyst for advancing practice in the field. As a resource for students, professors, and advocates, Arbitration 2009 reflects a due process theme with presentations such as How Much Process Are You Due? Balancing Due Process and Access to Justice; Due Process in Employment Arbitration: The Arbitration Fairness Act and the Future of the Process; and Ethical Issues and Due Process. Other topics include religious conflict in the workplace, interest arbitration, remedies in discipline cases, the outer limits of the duty to accommodate in Canada, and constitutional issues in the public sector workplace.
