Barbara Yoffie has been in Catholic education for 35 years as both a primary grades classroom teacher and religion education coordinator. Currently, she is the coordinator of religious education at St. Clement of Rome Elementary School, St. Louis, MO. She is a well-known presenter on a variety of topics, including seasons of the Church year, saints, creative activities, and praying with children. Yoffie has a master's degree in religious education administration from Loyola University, New Orleans, a bachelor's degree in art education, and a certificate of religious studies, from Paul VI Institute, St. Louis. She is the author of several pamphlets and booklets on saints and choosing confirmation saints. Katherine Alpha Borgatti is an artist and illustrator native to Louisiana. She is a convert to the Catholic faith and has a passion for Catholic art. Her works include portraits of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Jesus and various Saints. Katherine resides in Mandeville, Louisiana with her husband Mike and their three children, Matthew, Annamarie and John.

Very good for children and quick reading for any adult.

This is a review for the kindle edition of this book. When it was delivered to my iPad, there is an issue with the formatting which inserts several blank pages as you attempt to flip through the book and the text appears to be missing on some pages and off the page in others. This makes the book unusable since the story is just not there. Hopefully this issue will be resolved, but as it is I had to return this book as it was completely unusable. My wife had intended to use it as supplemental material for working on a Girl Scouts saint project.

I have tried reading many other Saint books to my 7 year old, and was so impressed by this series of books because they were age appropriate, interesting, had nice illustrations, and were filled with information. There is a sweet prayer to say at the end for the Saint and for the child reading it. It is the same basic prayer in the back of each of these books, yet they each have something different relating to the individual Saint. Highly recommend...my daughter (and I do too) loves them!!
