The Day After Christmas (Anno Xmas Book 2)

Synopsis

Most of the legal action surrounding the unsolved JonBenét Ramsey case has nothing to do with prosecuting the case. The premise of the second book in The Day After Christmas trilogy surgically removes the peripheral noise. "What do we see? We see a case that involves a trifecta typical to the true crime genre. Sex, money and prestige underpin the triumvirate of power, and somehow this crime is a manifestation of all three. Thus far we have dabbled in the prestige but we've virtually not touched on sex and money. In this narrative we will deal with sex. What impact did sex have on the murder and cover-up of JonBenét?"

Customer Reviews

I'm hooked. This book is full of information I've not read anywhere. Great time line of Events!
Looking forward to the last installment.

I've read 12 books so far on this maddening case including all 5 books so far in this series. I agree with other reviewers that these books contain some details not available elsewhere. As in all of their works there is a great deal of verbiage to slog through but for Ramsey case fans these e-books are essential reading. I feel they were way off base with the Amanda Knox case but are spot on with this case. One item that bugs me about all of the books (save one) on this case and all 7 documentaries I've watched is not giving enough weight to the puzzling fact that John Ramsey doesn't first remove that hideous garrote around his daughters neck when finding her at 1:05 pm that terrible day. That's the first thing a father would do before checking her vital signs! There is no rational argument to explain this callous act. The garrote was still wrapped tightly around JonBenet's neck when she was checked into the morgue at 10:00 pm that evening. Those still supporting the intruder theory don't have a problem with this? Of course the answer to this seeming puzzle is pretty obvious is it not? I'm currently reading book 3 of the After Christmas series and strongly recommend this e-book as well.

The continuance of breaking down the walls of bs.

This one was a lil harder to connect with but still enjoyed the knowledge of the things I never knew before

I love this series! In depth analysis of this unsolved murder case. Can't wait for book 3

This book was explosive! A lot of information I've not read anywhere and other information which is extremely revealing! Can't wait for the last installment!
