Dakota Day Trips and More Dakota Day Trips are both easy, pleasant escapes. Not a North Dakotan, it is unlikely I will ever visit most of the places highlighted in these books, nor is it likely that I would go out of my way to visit North Dakota just to see them. What I enjoy most about the "Day Trips" books is the friendly voice speaking to me from rural America. It IS an escape to read about small town folk welcoming you into the passions of their lives as they run their restaurants, renovate luxury train cars, or the townsfolk who contribute their hearts as they plant peonies or place teacups in local cemeteries. The "Day Trips" books help me to see my corner of America with wonder as I try to notice details which may belie or reveal stories, and a spirit that appreciates the love that motivated the care of those details. Not a North Dakotan? Read either or both "Day Trips" and open your eyes to your corner of America.
