Customer Reviews

This book gave no information on how to get started selling private label products on . It just had very general information about FBA that even a beginning seller would already know. The author talks about using PLR which is against 's policies. My guess is that this book was outsourced cheaply. It reads like someone rushed through writing it. I won't give a book one star if I think the author is actually trying to deliver a good book. My feeling about this book is that it was done as quickly and cheaply as possible to try to make a little money off unsuspecting readers.

I've been interested in earning some extra money through the FBA program but had no idea where to get started. This book was a great resource in learning how the program works and the first steps to get involved. Recommended.

Poorly written, 5 pages long. Written overseas?

It is a short read, some good information although nothing I hadn't already heard.

Just talks about drop shipping.

Great book

This book teaches nothing new at all. You can find everything in here in help.Garbage

Short on how to.
