Kentucky Bird Watching: A Year-Round Guide

Synopsis

Like gardening, bird watching is a fast-growing regional hobby. Now, Cool Springs Press brings its proven method of successful state-specific gardening approach to bird watching guides. In collaboration with Bird Watcher's Digest, these bird watching guides provide accessible, credible advice. The birds that frequent the backyards of Kentucky differ from the birds that frequent the backyards of Tennessee. In addition to unique descriptions, each bird profile includes a range map to identify each bird's North American distribution. One hundred birds are profiled, each with a color photograph, to ensure accurate identification. A seasonal section informs the reader of: Migrating birds that can be seen during that seasonThe foods and plants that can attract those birdsWhere to go to view year-round and migrating birdsCool Springs Press's partner, Bird Watcher's Digest, has sold more than 4 million copies of their booklets on bird species, bird habitat, feeding, and other related topics.This series of books from Cool Springs Press targets the beginning bird watchers for ten states.

Thompson is the editor of Bird Watcher's Digest, a bimonthly magazine with seventy thousand subscribers.

this book was a nice book for bird lover such as myself. this one not only had pictures but did tell birds that was only around at certain times during the yr. I was happy with it

great book

This book is excellent for Kentucky birders. Too bad it no longer is in print and is a bit difficult to track down, but it is worth the effort.

This book has colorful illustrations. It is user friendly. I use it constantly to identify birds in my yard. I highly recommend it.

I have many bird books, but this one is the best for me. It is much more practical as it only features birds that I might see in Kentucky. It makes it much easier to identify them as it eliminates all of the birds that will not visit the state. Someone gave this book to me last year. I liked it so much that I purchased one to give to another Kentucky birder. He thinks it's as great as I do.
