The Boy In The Cupboard

Synopsis

Three heart-stopping stories of children trapped by their parents' pasts ... Craig, the little boy who can't speak English, isn't allowed to use his real name and hides food around his playschool, afraid he'll be hungry again. His parents are trying to make a fresh start, but their gangland bosses are about to catch up with the family and Craig will pay a terrible price...Edgar is a twelve-year-old boy who nobody wants, not even the staff at the residential unit where he lives. Just when it seems that there might be a way of getting through to Edgar, his mother reveals a secret that changes everything ...Vinnie is a teenage boy who knows exactly what his gangster father is capable of, of how he makes problems disappear. He also knows that he had become a very big problem for his father One man's fight to give these children the future they deserve.

Great book

It saddens me to read that some children go through what they do. It makes me realize that here in the U.S. our children who suffer are not alone.

how any body can do these things is beyond me very good

This book took me to the edge of frustration and back. I wanted to hear more about the kids and not so much about the adults involved. I like reading these kinds of books because they always fill me with hope. Hope that there are still good people in the world.

Shane has an amazing talent. As i read i could hear, feel, smell, see and taste everything as though i was sitting with shane talking. Truely captivating!!!
