Deep Dive #4: Kraya The Blood Shark

Synopsis

Max and Lia's underwater adventure concludes in this thrilling series by Beast Quest author, Adam Blade! Max and Lia have tracked the evil Professor to his lair in the Black Caves. Neither of them are ready for what awaits them there. Kraya the Blood Shark, with his razor sharp teeth and laser cannons is the most vicious of all the Robobeasts. Max must survive if he wants to finally come face-to-face with the Professor to save his father and retrieve the fourth and final piece of the Skull of Thallos. But there are still some secrets Max has not uncovered and they could lead to Max's defeat.

Adam Blade is in his late twenties, and was born in Kent, England. His parents were both history teachers and amateur artists, and Adam grew up surrounded by his father's paintings of historic English battles which left a lifelong mark on his imagination. He was also fascinated by the ancient sword and shield that hung in his father's office. Adam's father said they were a Blade family heirloom. Sadly, Adam does not have his own Ice Dragon or Ghost Panther. But he really wishes he did!

(9yr old boy)) I like the plot-particularly the factory scenario. Bummer is it end with a cliffhanger but they haven't made another book. I like the plot around the Skull of Thalos.

The little boy BLEW thru this book... said it was very exciting! We also started the Beastmaster books after seeing that the author wrote those as well. Great exciting reads for my 3rd grade boy.

Fabulous series. Our 7-year-old was hooked from the first book. We read the book to him.

Appropriate for 9 - 11 year old children.

My son loves the series.

my son loved it

This is the conclusion of the first story arc of this series, and so there is a lot of wrapping up of loose ends done here. The identity of the villain is revealed. While not all that shocking, it makes sense in story terms. This book also introduces Kraya, the last of the robobeasts from this initial story arc. Kraya is literally a "shark with laser beams coming out of its head"! Clearly "Adam Blade" an Austin Powers fan. Kraya actually has more to do in this story than the robobeasts in the two middle volumes of the arc, and he gets some of the best scenes. The first few chapters are a bit slow, but once the action gets going it's non-stop (well, up to the epilogue-ish final chapter, but that bit does its job well too). There are some really creative dangers that Max and Lia face and some genuinely exciting escapes. Also, kudos to Adam Blade for including a female unnamed henchperson in a scene. No, really. I have gotten on Blade's case for not giving the female companion characters enough to do and for using them in stereotypical roles (and that does happen a bit here, but it was a clever scene that I was good with), but a nice small step in the right direction is including diversity in the background roles. So, yay for unnamed henchwoman! Hope you managed to escape when everything started blowing up! This was a good, satisfying ending to the first four books, and my son enjoyed it quite a bit, especially Kraya's scenes.

Hi, hi, hi, hi! I am Rivet! I tell you about adventure! Bad professor! Good Max and Lia and fish! Silly Kraya!
